

WHAT THE KING SAID

I am very glad, as your Patron, to welcome you to Windsor on this occasion, the Diamond Jubilee of The Boys' Brigade.

The word Jubilee reminds me of the good work that the Brigade did at the Silver Jubilee of my father, who was also your Patron for nearly forty years. I will remember receiving at the Albert Hall at that time the message which relays of your runners had carried through the length and breadth of this country, from John o' Groats and Land's End.

At Windsor

When the Boys' Brigade was founded sixty years ago your Founder, Sir William A. Smith, builded better than he knew, for he started not only a great movement, but one from which all our present wide-spread youth training was destined to spring.

For sixty years the Brigade has faithfully served our country and Empire, and advanced the interests of our Boys. That it is still young and as vigorous as ever is proved by the fact that the past twelve months have seen the greatest increase ever achieved in one year.

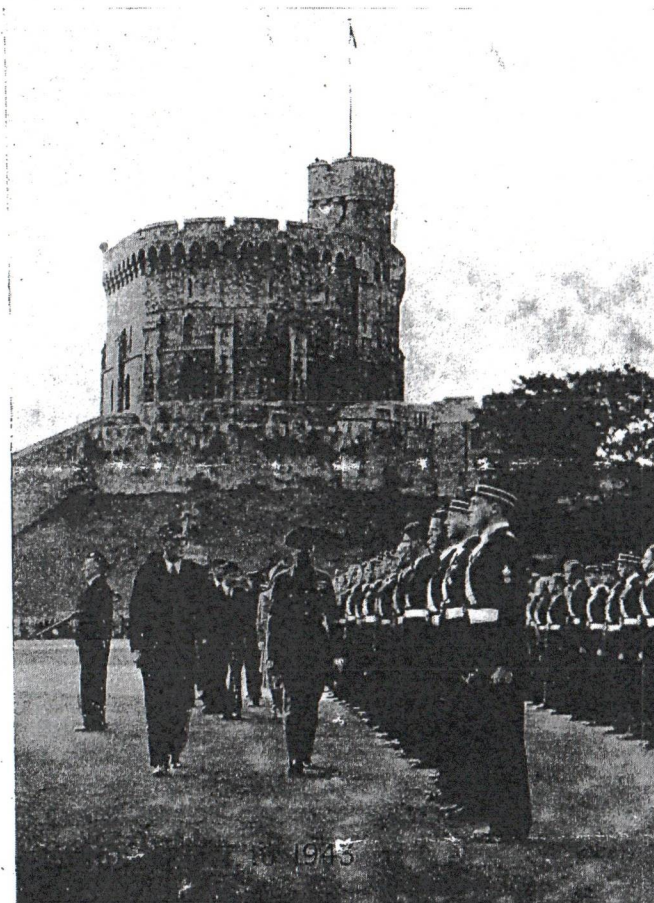

Many thousands of your old comrades are serving in the Forces at sea, on land and in the air. We are proud of their brave record and thankful for their spirit of service and sacrifice.

I feel sure that the B.B. will go from strength to strength because it is built upon the twin pillars of religion and discipline, and so is meeting two of the greatest needs of the present time.

Good luck to you and all your comrades. May all you Boys live to see the centenary of this great movement.

AT CAMP

ONE of the important features of the work of The Boys' Brigade is the healthy and happy time provided by the camps held during the summer months. It would be impossible to estimate the benefit the Boys derive or the keenness of their enjoyment.

Each year over 7,000 London Boys attend Camp. The greater part of the cost is paid by the Boys themselves, but to enable a larger number to attend grants are made to all camps of the London District.

Contributions to the London Camp Fund are invited and should be sent to the Treasurer, The London District, The Boys' Brigade, Abbey House, Westminster, S.W.1.

HYMN—

JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Doth his successive journeys run ;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

To Him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown His head ;
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song ;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His name.

Let every creature rise, and bring
Peculiar honours to our King,
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen.

That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

O may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close,
Sleep that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

Praise Him, all creatures here below,
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host,

HYMN

*Tune—From Strength to Strength.
Arr. Hazelgrove.*

- 1 Soldiers of Christ! arise,
And put your armour on,
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through His Eternal Son;
Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
And in His mighty power;
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.
- 2 Stand, then, in His great might,
With all His strength endued;
And take, to arm you for the fight
The panoply of God.
To keep your armour bright
Attend with constant care,
Still walking in your Captain's sight,
And watching unto prayer.
- 3 From strength to strength go on;
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day;
That, having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome through Christ alone,
And stand complete at last.

We will always follow You,
Confessing the choice we've made.
We will always call to You —
'Lord, bless The Boys' Brigade'.

Through the years, for evermore,
We'll never be afraid:
We'll honour You
In all that we do;
Your splendour will never fade.
Maker of the Universe,
Your crest is with joy displayed.
Stay and show the truth to us,
'Lord, bless The Boys' Brigade'.

THE LONDON PRESIDENT

who will introduce the GUEST OF HONOUR (see page 3).

Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag,
And smile, smile, smile;
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, Boys, that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while, so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag,
And smile, smile, smile.

Abide with me,
Fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens,
Lord, with me abide.
When other helpers fail
And comforts flee:
Help of the helpless,
O abide with me.

Underneath The Banner

Underneath the banner
Of the Cross arrayed,
Lord! we ask Thy blessing
On The Boys' Brigade:
Thou art our Commander,
And Thy soldiers, we,
And in Christian warfare
We would honour Thee:

Chorus:

Underneath the banner
Of the Cross arrayed,
Lord, we ask Thy blessing
On The Boys' Brigade.

In each lowly service,
As on drill parade,
'Duty' be the watch word
Of The Boys' Brigade;
Make us ever loyal,
Small or great the foe;
Lead us, Saviour! lead us,
Everywhere we go.

We will fight for laurels
That will never fade:
For the Holy City
March The Boys' Brigade;
What we find unholy
In our daily life,
We will try to conquer —
Help us in the strife.

FINALE — Throughout The World

London District pays tribute to The Boys' Brigade — started in 1883 and one hundred years later still seeking to 'Advance Christ's Kingdom among Boys ...' in 60 countries throughout the world. Boys from Barnet, Harrow & Brent, Hendon, Islington and E. London, Lewisham, South Bucks & East Berks, Redbridge, Thameside and Westminster Battalions and the London Bugle Band Soloists, plus other members of the cast, take part in the Finale.

On the Thursday performance only 'we salute our Old Boys' as we invite any ex-members to unite with the Boys in the arena.

We all join with the final refrain of the Anchor Song, sung by Steven Wakeford, 3rd Enfield Company.

'Sure and Stedfast' — The Brigade Boy's motto clear;
That's our watch-word when trouble and trials are near.
'Sure and Stedfast' to the flag that flies above,
In all that we do we'll try to be true to the Anchor that we love.

At the close of the item the Chaplain will conduct the Epilogue.

"THE WELSH CONNECTION"

Following a visit to Port Talbot last year with the London Bugle Band, the Pipe Bands of the 10th Hounslow (St Lukes Mission) and the 3rd Newport (Beechwood Park Presbyterian) Companies decided to offer a joint London and Welsh Pipe Band as an item for the 1987 London Display.

"AIMING HIGH"

The 10th Sutton Company (Christ Church Methodist) together with the 4th Sutton (Sutton Baptist), 7th Sutton (Wallington Baptist), 18th Sutton (Worcester Park Baptist), 2nd Sutton (Crown Road Baptist), 9th Mid Surrey (Ruxley Lane Methodist) and 17th Mid Surrey (St George's Ashted) compete in team games based on the Company Section Award Scheme. Choose your team and cheer them on to victory.

"GO FOR GOLD"

Junior Section Boys from the 1st North Surrey (Staines Congregational), 2nd North Surrey (Addlestone Baptist), 4th North Surrey (Sunbury Methodist), 7th North Surrey (Ashford Common Methodist) and 8th North Surrey (Ashford Baptist) take a golden opportunity to show us what they get up to in The Boys' Brigade.

Thanks to Reckett and Coleman for the loan of a small pair of shoes.

"STRIKE UP THE BAND"

The 46th London Company (St Margaret's, Lee), who celebrate their 90th birthday this year first took part in the London Display in 1905. In 1987 their Bugle Band shows how enjoyable this activity can be as part of a Company Programme.

"SERVE, VOLLEY, DIG AND SPIKE"

In 1986, the 70th London Company (Tooting Junction Baptist) reached the final of the National Volley Ball Competition. This year they were knocked out in the Semi-Final by the 32nd Cardiff Company (Cyncoed Methodist). Here in the Royal Albert Hall, that match is about to be replayed.

"STEEL NOTES"

Company Band work takes many forms in The Boys' Brigade. In the 104th London Company (St Andrews URC, Balham) it takes the form of a Steel Band and we can enjoy a Caribbean flavour which is liable to "steal" the show.

"MOVING TOGETHER"

The 1st and 3rd Enfield Companies (Lancaster Road and Christ Church URC), representing the Enfield Battalion, retained the "Daily Telegraph" trophy for 3 Section Drill. Waltham Forest, West Kent and Sutton Battalions competed in this top London District Competition, making up the 4 premier Battalions who reached the highest standards of Drill.

It is interesting to note, that the first item in the first London Display at the Royal Albert Hall in 1901, was a Drill Demonstration by the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Enfield Companies: high standards maintained over 85 years.

LONDON VICE PRESIDENT

Mr. Raymond L Bray will introduce our GUEST OF HONOUR - see page 5

PRESENTATION OF QUEEN'S MEN

(evening only)

Members who have gained their Queen's Badge during the Session 1986/87 will be presented to our Guest of Honour.

"SOUNDING FOURTH"

Members of the 4th Bromley Boys' Brigade and the 1st Hextable Girls' Brigade Companies (Hextable Methodist) combine to show what an excellent standard can be reached in the marching band style as part of a Company programme.

"SOLITAIRE"

Visitors from Cheshire, the 1st Congleton Company (Trinity Methodist) present an item of music and movement based on the game of Solitaire. Great concentration is demanded from the Boys so each one can play his part.

"LONDON GYM TEAM"

The London Gym Team, a regular participant in the London Display, demonstrate the high standards that can be reached in this popular Company activity, in a non-stop series of movements accompanied by the London Brass Band.

The London Gym Team is open to any Company Section member in London. Practices are held once a month at the Leysian Mission.

"CROYDON KALEIDOSCOPE"

A celebration in light, colour, music and movement in a kaleidoscope pattern, performed by Junior and Company Section members from Croydon Battalion to mark the Diamond Jubilee year of their Battalion.

- 1st Woodmansterne (Woodmansterne Baptist)

Thanks to Everready for provision of batteries.

"ST GEORGE AND THE DRAGON"

"THE KING OF KINGS"

Make Way

*Make way, make way, for Christ the King
In splendour arrives;
Fling wide the gates, and welcome him
Into your lives.*

*1st: Make way!            Make Way!
2nd:            Make way!            Make way!
1st: For the King of Kings!
2nd:            For the King of Kings!
1st: Make way!            Make way!
2nd:            Make way!            Make way!
Both: And let his kingdom in!*

*He comes the broken hearts to heal:
The prisoners to free.
The deaf shall hear, the lame shall dance,
The blind shall see.*

*We call you now to worship Him
As Lord of all, To have no gods before him,
Their thrones must fall!*

"THE LONDON BUGLE BAND"

With Boys from over 50 London Companies involved, the London Bugle Band provides an appropriate final item for the 1987 London Display.

The Earth is the Lord's

*1st: The earth is the Lord's
2nd: And everything in it.
1st: The earth is the Lord's
2nd: The work of his hands.
1st: The earth is the Lord's
2nd: And everything in it
Both: And all things were made for his glory.*

*The mountains are his,
The seas and the islands,
The cities and towns,
The houses and streets.
Let rebels bow down,
And worship before him,
For all things were made
for his glory.*

*Last time
And all things were made,
Yes all things were made,
And all things were made for his glory.*

For over 100 years, the Boys' Brigade has had a tradition of marching to Church, with Bands: making their presence known in the neighbourhood! In recent years, Graham Kendrick has developed the idea of the "Praise March" – taking the Church and the Good News of Jesus out into the street – and has written a series of songs called "Make Way". Junior Sections taking part in the Eisteddfod this year learnt the above 2 songs from "Make Way" and now join forces to sing them in the Royal Albert Hall accompanied by the London Brass Band, the entire cast and the audience. Rev. Paul Holmes, the Chaplain, will introduce the songs and lead the Benediction and the Doxology.

THE DOXOLOGY:

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him ye creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.*

WEMBLEY
WHERE ELSE

WE'RE ON OUR WAY TO WEMBLEY

This is an exciting new venue with modern facilities, and tiered seating so that everyone gets a good view.

The London Brass Band has achieved a very high standard in the 7 years of its existence and currently are The Boys' Brigade National Champions. Their new tape is on sale.

The Band is open to any Brass players in the District – details from the London Field Officer.

SUNSET

For thousands of Boys, a week at camp combines the joy of open air and activities shared in Christian fellowship. We reflect the joy and thanksgiving of Camp Evening Worship as we bring our Display to a close.

RETREAT (remain seated)

Our Chaplain

Hymn:

The day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
The darkness falls at Thy behest:
To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

We thank Thee that Thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.

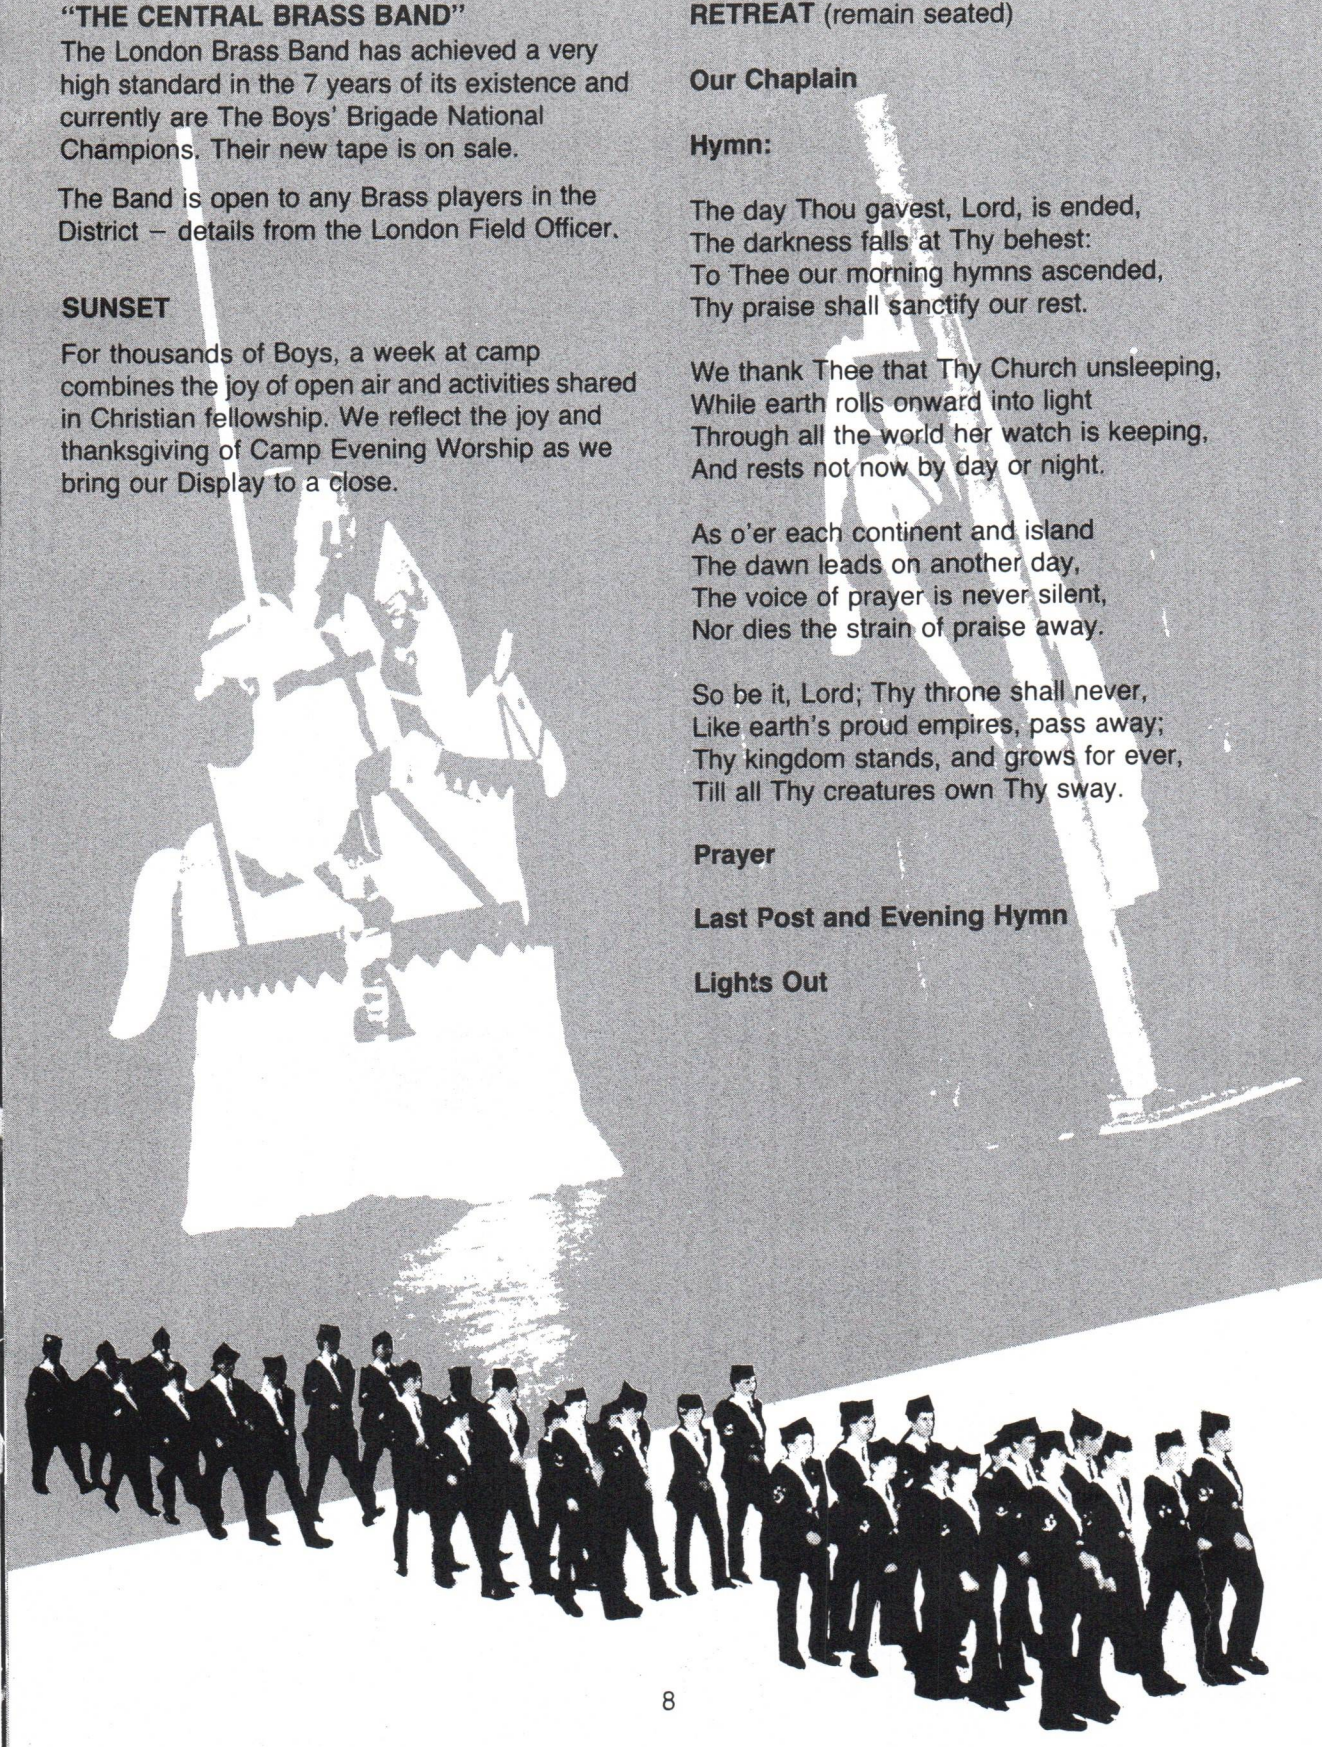

As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.

So be it, Lord; Thy throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
Thy kingdom stands, and grows for ever,
Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway.

Prayer

Hymn:

Crown Him with many crowns
The Lamb upon His throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own;
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of Him Who died for thee,
And hail Him as the chosen King
Through all eternity.

Crown Him the Lord of life,
Who triumphed o'er the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife
For those He came to save;
His glories now we sing
Who died, and rose on high,
Who died – eternal life to bring,
And lives, that death may die.

Crown Him the Lord of peace,
Whose power a sceptre sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
And all be prayer and praise;
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
For Thou has died for me;
Thy praise and glory shall not fail
Throughout eternity.

Christ, the Royal Master, leads against the foe;
Forward into battle, see, His banners go.

*Onward! Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.*

Like a mighty army, moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading where the saints have trod.

We are not divided, all one body we,
One in hope and doctrine, one in charity.

Onward! then, ye people, join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices, in the triumph song,
Glory laud, and honour, unto Christ the King!
This, through countless ages, men and angels sing.

Prayer

Hymn:

Praise my soul, the King of Heaven,
To His feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like thee His praise should sing?
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise the everlasting King!

Praise Him for His grace and favour
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same forever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless;
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Glorious in His faithfulness!

Angels in the height, adore Him:
Ye behold Him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before Him!
Dwellers all in time and space;
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise with us the God of grace!

The 2nd Tonbridge Boys' Brigade and the 1st Tonbridge Girls' Brigade are an important part of the youth work of Tonbridge Baptist Church. We also support conservation, medical research and education.

We are one of the largest corporate contributors to the community and intend to remain so.

During 1991 we plan to spend £11 million across a wide ranging programme of activities. A large part of that sum will go towards supporting the worthwhile work of around 2,000 charities.

Thine be the glory,

EPILOGUE

Will your anchor hold in the storms of life,
When the clouds unfold their wings of strife?
When the strong tides lift, and the cables strain,
Will your anchor drift, or firm remain?

Chorus:

We have an anchor that keeps the soul
Stedfast and sure while the billows roll;
Fasten'd to the Rock which cannot move,
Grounded firm and deep in the Saviour's love!

Will your anchor hold in the straits of fear,
When the breakers roar and the reef is near?
While the surges rave, and the wild winds blow,
Shall the angry waves then your bark o'erflow?

EPILOGUE

HYMN

The day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
The darkness falls at Thy behest;
To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

We thank Thee that Thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.

So be it Lord; Thy Throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
Thy Kingdom stands, and grows for ever,
Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway.

But what happens if the future doesn't quite go according to plan? If you stop your contributions will your existing fund be penalised as a result?

Yes, it will be penalised by many companies. No, it won't be penalised with London Life.
